

Election Capsule

The new council will be a veteran council, headed in seniority by Richard Pilski's 12 years of service, followed by Weidenfeld's and Schwan's six years of service and Castaldi's and White's four years of service. Together, they represent 32 years of service. Once again, the council will be without a woman member.

... And Also Running

In the sportsmanlike spirit that characterizes Greenbelt elections, the loser, Bob Phillips, joined the victors Tuesday night at a post-election party at the Fire House which was open to all.

Write-in votes were cast for ten candidates.

There were 56 absentee ballots.

Assault Incidents Keep Police Busy On Night of Sept. 19

Assaults and domestic problems kept the Greenbelt Police Department moving at a hectic pace on September 19. A major incident occurred at 9:30 p.m. at the 39 court of Ridge when it was reported that a daughter and father were arguing. Police escorted the daughter safely from the scene.

About 1:23 a.m. police returned to the house after a complaint was lodged by a neighbor concerning a loud stereo set. The man became disorderly and barricaded himself inside the home (he was alone). Faced with the possibility that the man was armed, police officers evacuated other homes in the row. Additionally, the Prince Georges SWAT team was called in as well as a State police unit and remained on the scene with Greenbelt officers until 3:45 a.m. During this period there was no disturbance within the home. The man had talked to the police dispatcher, his wife, a friend, and Lt. Krob.

After the SWAT team left, those evacuated returned to their homes and a police car and officer remained. Shortly after 7 a.m., the man went outdoors, and again became disorderly, smashing the windshield of his car. Officers moved in and took him to the hospital for observation.

Another incident during the day involved a bicyclist who tried to run down another bicyclist, then assaulted a police officer. There was also a domestic flare-up when a man and woman came into the station, the man assaulted his wife and then assaulted a police officer. He was subsequently charged with assault.

Survey on Bikeway

Residents of the Greenbelt area are currently being surveyed for their opinions concerning the bikeway on Greenbelt Road. Approximately one-third of the Greenbelt residents will receive questionnaires being distributed door-to-door by University of Maryland students. The survey is conducted by the Transportation Studies Center and the Department of Civil Engineering of the University as part of a Maryland Department of Transportation funded project.

The Maryland Department of Transportation has designated five of its bikeways as "demonstration" bikeways. These bikeways are being studied to determine their levels - of usage, reasons for use and nonuse, and the adequacy of their designs. The five bikeways are located in Greenbelt, Bowie, Ocean City, Montgomery County, and Baltimore County.

Besides asking questions to determine the opinions of the community concerning the bikeway, information will also be collected concerning family cycling habits, commuting habits, and socio-economic status. This information will be useful in analyzing the usage of the bikeway.

Through this study the state bikeway planners hope to better understand the needs of the bicyclist. The study will provide information for planning, designing, and evaluating future bikeway systems in the State of Maryland.

GHI Rehabilitation Plans

by Ken Kopstein

GHI Assistant Manager

The GHI Long Range Planning Committee (LRPC) met on September 7 in joint session with the Aesthetics and Environment and Parking Committees. A planning status report from Mark Beck Associates, planning consultants to GHI, was the meeting's principal subject.

Consultants discussed the following topics:

(1) Questionnaire Status - to date, 793 questionnaires, sent to GHI members in July, have been returned. Analysis of the questionnaires should be completed by October, with consultants and GHI Committees using the data for furthering rehabilitation plans.

(2) Preliminary Rehabilitation Recommendations - Electrical heavy-up and rewiring appear necessary. Asbestos shingles on frame homes are nearing the end of their useful life and may have to be replaced with the same or other siding materials. Wall, window and door insulation for homes appears to be a cost effective measure, reducing fuel costs to such a level as to more than repay costs of installing these items.

(3) Preventative Maintenance Strategies - An analysis is being performed on how GHI may expand its preventive maintenance program to reduce emergency situations and reduce over-all maintenance costs.

(4) Aesthetic Considerations - Alternative exterior designs were presented for consideration. These designs are intended to improve the appearance of homes, as well as provide functional purposes such as increased living space, increased storage space and reduced maintenance costs. Design alternatives will probably be incorporated into a Design Book for GHI member use.

(5) Other Facilities - Consultants are evaluating costs and benefits of providing central storage, hobby and work space for GHI members. Analysis of questionnaires will aid in determining membership desires for additional facilities. Improvements to common areas, e.g. providing better recreational equipment, and walkways are also being considered. Improved street lighting plans were presented in a preliminary stage.

(6) Parking Analysis - Consultants have preliminary plans for increasing the number of parking spaces for GHI members. Consideration of trade-offs, e.g. open spaces and trees versus additional parking spaces, must be undertaken by Committees before consultants finalize recommendations.

(7) Future Planning Process - Discussion on how to continue GHI planning after the consultant report is delivered resulted in a consensus that the LRPC should continue to function and update the long range plan annually. Other ideas, such as court representatives, were presented but no further recommendations were finalized.

The meeting concluded with a status report from management on GHI's government grants. GHI has received $20,000 from the National Endowment for the Arts to help finance the rehabilitation master plan study. Prince Georges County has indicated that GHI will receive $150,000 from its Community Development Block Grant. $50,000 of the $150,000 grant will be used for planning purposes and $100,000 to defray the cost of borrowing funds for rehabilitation. The County is currently writing the contract for GHI to sign to receive the grant.

The next LRPC meeting is scheduled for October 5.

R. PILSKI GETS HIGH VOTE VOTER TURNOUT ALSO HIGH

by Elaine Skolnik

The big surprise of the City Council election on September 20 was the big voter turnout in an election that created few fireworks. All incumbents were reelected with challenger Robert Phillips receiving a respectable vote. Councilman Richard Pilski was the top vote getter. His 1,170 votes was some 53 votes ahead of his nearest rival Mayor Gil Weidenfeld. The fire station referendum passed by a whopping 78%.

Finishing in third place was Thomas White, 71 votes behind Weidenfeld. Richard Castaldi and Charles Schwan took fourth and fifth spots respectively on the five member council. (See accompanying box for results.)

All five top vote-getters pulled over 40% of the vote thus eliminating a runoff. In fact all candidates, including Phillips, received over 50% of the votes.

The 1,558 votes cast represented 59% of the 2,661 Greenbelters registered to vote last Tuesday. In 1975 48% of the electorate turned out, in 1973 54% and in 1971 54%. However in 1969 75% of the 2,991 registered voters turned out.

The new council which will serve for two years will hold an organizational meeting on Monday, September 26 at 7:30 p.m. The mayor will be elected by council at this time. Although the charter is silent on this point, past councils have generally chosen the top vote gatherer.

Pot Pourri

A run-down in the respective precincts since 1971 appears on page 3.

Some interesting facts coming out of the election included:

-Pilski was top vote-getter in every precinct except Springhill Lake where he was eight votes behind Weidenfeld.

-White polled the same number of votes - 481 - at both the North End and Center School precincts.

-Castaldi and Schwan pulled the same number of votes - 427 - at North End and Schwan was one vote ahead of Castaldi at Springhill Lake.

-Persons voting in Center School precinct cast ballots for an average of 4.0 candidates out of a possible five; at North End, 3.95 votes and at Springhill Lake, 3.74.

COUNCIL ELECTION RESULTS

Health Fair Planned

Another Health Fair is planned for Saturday, October 15, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the Mowatt Memorial United Methodist Church, 40 Ridge Road, by Chairman Henry Fisher of the Greenbelt Lions Club. Due to the large turnout last year for the optional SM-12 test, appointments must be made. Call Peggy Wainscott, Chairman of the Woman's Club of Greenbelt, at the church, 474-9410, on Friday, September 23, from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. Those who wish to volunteer to take phone calls are requested to call Mrs. Wainscott at 474-8541.

The half-page ad elsewhere in this issue of the News Review provides further information regarding all the free tests and the SM-12 test. The SM-12 test will be given for a minimal fee.

All persons wishing to take advantage of the Health Fair are asked to make appointments.

Those making appointments will be told what and how to prepare for tests. The results will be sent directly to the person tested and his doctor.

THANKS

To the Editor:

I would like to publicly announce my sincere thanks and appreciation for their cooperation and support during the Miss Greenbelt Pageant held at the Greenbelt Labor Day Festival:

Barbizon School of Modeling and Fashion Two Twenty with their continued interest and participation in the pageant; Christine McNair, William L. Guptill, Robyn Rivers and Paul E. Farrens for serving as judges; local merchants and associations who sponsored the contestants; Fred Levenson, Barbizon photographer for contestant photographs displayed on posters placed in the Post Office window with the permission and assistance of Postmaster Emory Harman; Stan Klem, festival photographer who covered Queen Pageant presentations; Buddy Attick and the Public Works Department who supplied the truck and driver for the float; The Washington Wilbert Vault Company for the use of their artificial grass; for the cars used in the parade—the MGB driven by Tim Pendergraph was from B.J. Epps Motor Co., and the Spitfire was driven and owned by Steven White.

Thanks goes also to the following escorts who served at the final presentations: David Harding, Chris Bates, Bill Wheatley, Thomas Grove, Tim Abell, Phil Han-yok, Vincent Bradley, Bobby Kent, Tim Pendergraph, Paul Tousignant, Vernon Drummond and Jimi Colby. Thanks, also, goes to Katherine Braddock, Miss Greenbelt 1976 for crowning the 1977 Queen; Mayor Weidenfeld, who made the evening introduction of the chairperson, and presented the winners trophies; and Barbara Calin, a Barbizon instructor for her assistance in the award ceremony.

I would like to especially thank Mr. and Mrs. James C. Plaster, and Martha my co-chairperson for all the help and support they have given me throughout the pageant. The advice of Mrs. Shirley Meredith was greatly appreciated. I would also like to thank Fran Hromulak, 1976 Chairperson.

The girls who participated in this years pageant made it an interesting as well as rewarding experience for me. Thank you all.

Alice Plaster

OPEN LETTER

To Greenbelt Homes, Inc.:

Thank you

... to management and all the staff, for a very great memory of a great group of people.

... to my fellow workers for the pleasure of working with such a great crew. The best working years of my life were spent there.

... and to the many members who made my job with and for you a pleasure rather than work.

James Padden and Family and Commentary

To the Editor:

What a sad commentary when hurtful, racial slurs are considered "childish remarks." "Why didn't you say something good?" and "How often have you volunteered your time?" are age old cliches when toes are stepped on. Getting involved with youth programs has nothing to do with undisciplined adults. This is a personal problem.

I (do and) will continue to do volunteer work with young people, as I have the past 10 years (because I would rather be with them than with most adults I know.) and I will continue to speak out against negative, unhealthy, anti-freedom behaviors which children learn from adults. I will continue to defend my right to attend a concert, movie, ball game, or any other event, without being saturated with smoke or stumbled over by a drunk...

When people start thinking and acting, changes occur, and this is progress.

If I were paid for all the letters of concern I've had published in newspapers and on TV, I'd be rich!

EYEGLASS COLLECTION

The Lions Club collects, old and unused eyeglasses. People are asked to bring their old glasses to Ben Franklin's 5 & 10 in the Center, or to the Post Office.

Recreation

Due to delays in having their field ready for play this year, once again arrangements were made to assist the Eleanor Roosevelt Senior High School's varsity soccer program. During the fall the school will utilize Braden Field for practices and several weekday afternoon games.

This fall the Partridgeberry School will be using the Youth Center gymnasium weekday mornings for their active programs.

Volunteers who assisted with this year's Camp Pine Tree were treated to a camp-out last weekend with Camp Manager Scott Powell and Assistant Manager Ron Ernst.

Vets Work-Study Program

Full-time veteran students who foresee money problems at fall enrollment time are advised to look into the Veterans' Administration's Work-Study Program. To help offset financial difficulties, the VA has directed that more Work-Study jobs be made available. Jobs are usually available for VA-related work on a given campus or at a VA facility. Priority is established on the basis of service-connected disability, financial need, motivation, and the nature of the work. Details are available from campus veterans' counselors or at any VA office.

GHI Financial Report

by Mary Lou Williamson

Increases in several Greenbelt Homes, Inc. expenditure items produced overspending of $84,700 over what was forecast for the first six months of 1977. At their Sept. 8 board meeting, general manager Roy Breashears told the directors that major increases occurred in insurance premiums, brick heating costs, and frame and new home repairs and maintenance.

The budget item furthest off-target at mid-year is the brick homes heating cost: $34,600 over the budget. Fuel cost accounted for $19,000 of that amount, largely due to the severe cold in January and February. Also staff engineer Dean Mulder has completed in six months much of the work scheduled for the entire year — thus the year-end figure should be more in line with the budget.

By contrast, frame home heating costs, usually underbudgeted, are within .8 percent of the forecast, or $3,600 over the budget. Comptroller Don McGinn made special note that this was the first time he could remember this item being right on target.

The shocker is the increased premiums for fire and public liability insurance: $24,500 over the amount budgeted, a rise of 310 percent! To make matters worse, the policy's deductible rose from $250 to $1000. Breashears noted that because "most of our losses are less than $1000 and are no longer covered" the uninsured costs item in the budget is up $3,400 over budget.

Structural repairs and maintenance costs for the frame homes were up $9,900 over the budget. Most of this amount derives from contract work, e.g., insulation of 34 Court Ridge and electrical heavy-up. Again, much of the full year's budgeted work has been accomplished during the first six months. Unanticipated expenses — re-roofing the four free-standing homes — pushed up the maintenance costs for the new homes by some $7,300 above the forecast.

McGinn, who prepared the financial report, called attention to the increasingly favorable position of "working capital." The 3 percent fee charged whenever a home is sold added $50,000 to working capital during 1976-77 and $59,000 during 1975-76.

On the comparative balance sheet, the "mortgage payable" figure of $396,430 is, for the first time, lower than the new homes mortgage of $427,287. Breashears pointed out that on the next balance sheet six months from now that mortgage payable figure will be zero.

On the income side, revenue received was $2,500 above the forecast as the result of $6,700 in increased income from services sold to members and to GDC (Greenbelt Development Corporation, the wholly owned subsidiary which manages the Parkway apartments). Also contributing to the positive side, monthly charges brought in $2,900 more than expected. On the negative side was $7,000 of "other income." A rise in sales department fees was offset by less interest earned on invested funds.

Total income for the first six months of 1977 amounted to $1,734,000 and total disbursements of $1,840,000 producing a deficit of $107,000. Such deficits for the first six months are the usual case because of the seasonal nature of GHI expenditures. The comparable deficit in 1976 was $71,300 and in 1975, $37,000.

Greenbelt CARES

On Sept. 6, Jeff Katz, Terri Jennings Lipman and Lisa Renshaw attended the University of Maryland EXPO. The EXPO is a means for community agencies to acquaint the students with their programs and to recruit volunteers, interns, and practicum students to participate. CARES profited by obtaining 15 student volunteers to aid in tutoring and Big Sib programs.

Thursday, September 15, the first of five training sessions for the tutors was held. The first four sessions focus on the basic fundamentals of reading (i.e. phonics), while the last will concentrate on mathematic skills. Six tutors attended the workshop. Several workshops are being scheduled for the end of September to accommodate the other tutors' schedules.

On Sept. 9, Lisa held two orientation meetings. One was for the new and old tutors to welcome them to the program and to organize the training sessions. The first tutor training was held September 15. The second meeting introduced the parents of the students to the program and informed them how they could be involved in the process. Additional meetings to acquire skills to aid their children academically will be scheduled.

Geiger - Wyatt

Thomas Wyatt, son of the Rev. Kenneth B. Wyatt, former minister of the Greenbelt Community Church, was recently married to Jayne M. Geiger of Plainfield, New Jersey. The Rev. Wyatt, who now resides in Jefferson, Maryland officiated at an outdoor ceremony at Camp Hazen, Connecticut. Also participating was the Rev. Kenneth Powell, a long time Greenbelt friend of the groom.

Wyatt, a graduate of Bates College, Lewiston, Maine, is Headmaster of the Middle School of Frankfurt International School in Frankfurt, Germany. Mrs. Wyatt is a graduate of Mt. St. Mary's Academy and Rutgers University in New Jersey and teaches school in Germany. The couple will return to the United States in June.

CITY NOTES

The general crew spent several days dismantling the Labor Day Festival booths, cleaning lumber and storing it away. Some time was spent preparing the North End School ballfield for sod, tracing the source of sewage where it enters the storm sewer line and empties out into an open stream. Parking stalls on various streets, including the recently paved portion of Ridge Road have been painted. All pedestrian underpasses were cleaned.

Also, they completed the installation of "No Parking" signs along Crescent Road. Signs are also being installed on Lastner and Ivy Lanes. The area around the old athletic clubhouse was cleaned of broken glass and other debris, and sections of the building were resurfaced. The concrete drainage channel between Northway and Lakewood was cleaned of weeds and other debris.

The crew repaired the bridge over the stream at the peninsula end of the lake; the "floor" was paved with asphalt and the guard rails were repaired. The equipment operator worked several days putting new tires on the heavy-duty trailer as well as doing other maintenance work on it.

The park crew has been cleaning up after the Labor Day Festival, cutting grass, and maintaining the ballfields and the golf course. Brush was picked up from roadsides and some repair work was done on playground equipment. The old landfill ballfield has been seeded. The CETA people have been erecting a fence along the property line at the old landfill ballfield. The fence is the old 5 ft. chain link fence removed from the North End School. After the fence is installed, the area will be seeded. The North End School ballfield is ready for sodding, but the city has been unable to obtain sod until there is some rain. An 8 ft. fence was installed on a 200 ft. radius there.

The building maintenance crew has been servicing the air conditioner at the Springhill Lake Rec-

Recreation Review

Volleyball - Competitive and Recreational

Both competitive and recreational volleyball are played at the Center School. Competitive volleyball is held Mon. evenings from 8:30-10:30 p.m. for persons 16 years and over. From 8:30-10:30 p.m. on Wed., those 16 years and over are invited to participate in recreational volleyball games. Everyone is welcome.

Roller Skating

Roller Skating is being held at the Greenbelt Center Gym, from 4:30-6 p.m. on Wed. for 1st - 3rd grades; on Fri. for 4th - 6th grades. A nominal fee will be charged.

Chucks 'n' Lassies

On Sat. mornings, a free program of organized games and physical activities is offered for boys and girls age 6-12 years. The program is run by staff recreation leaders. Shirts are provided for those who show regular attendance. Classes are held at both the Youth Center and Springhill Lake Recreation Center. The fall session begins Sat., Sept. 24: 9-10:30 a.m. for those 6-8 years and 10:30-12 noon for 9-12 year olds.

Arts and Crafts

A free arts & crafts program is held at both the Youth Center and Springhill Lake Center on Mon. and Wed. at 4 p.m. Youngsters 1st - 3rd grades may attend on Mon., with 4th - 6th graders attending on Wed. All children are encouraged to participate in this free program.

recreation Building and doing preliminary work prior to installing outside lights. Light poles were received this week to be used at the Springhill Lake Recreation Center. Work is expected to start soon on the installation.

Two weeks ago the paper collection netted 6 tons, 520 lbs. and 230 lbs of aluminum were recycled; last week it netted approximately 7 1/2 tons while the price has increased to $20 a ton.

Cross-Country Races

On Sun., Sept. 18, the CYO of Washington, D.C. held its opening cross country race of the season. St. Hugh's cross-country team competed and Ponro Houl won the most important race of the day. He completed the 2 and 1/2 mile race around Greenbelt Lake in the excellent time of 14 minutes and 28 seconds. In this race Houl defeated the number 6th ranked American Woman runner, Aileen O'Connor of nearby College Park. Chris Cantwell finished 5th.

In other races, Malia Murray was 20th, Jay O'Hagan 13th, Mary Jo Ekstorm 11th; and Maureen Fern 13th; also Chris Kronber was 25th and Lisa Eckstorm 11th. These participants were from various age groups.

Greenbelt Soccer

A good-sized, enthusiastic crowd watched three Greenbelt Boys and Girls Club teams play at Braden Field on Sun., Sept. 18.

The Greenbelt 16 & under girls soccer team won 2-0; Beth Osborne scored both goals. The 14 & under girls soccer team tied 2-2. Finally, the 12 and under girls soccer team quashed Hyattsville's team 6-0. Greenbelt girls scored four times during the early part of the first half: two goals by Diane Maxwell, one by Theresa Downs and the other bounced off the Hyattsville full-back as three Greenbelt forwards pushed hard for a goal - Liz Greig, Theresa Downs and Kim McKinney. Greenbelt's team, particularly the forwards were so aggressive they completely dominated the action until Coach John Cassidy sent in all the substitutes he had sitting on the bench. The first string forwards saw only occasional play the rest of the game.

The teams were more evenly matched then, and Greenbelt scored only twice more in the remaining three-fourths of the game. Sheila Chaney assisted a corner kick by Peggy Yunger for the fifth goal and Diane Maxwell, easily the star of the afternoon, scored the last goal when she returned to the forward

Food Stamp Help Needed

The Community Ministry Food Stamp Outreach Program, working with the Prince Georges County Department of Social Services, needs volunteers to help make medical assistance and food stamp appointments. The Community Ministry Volunteer Program needs workers one day a week in the Hyattsville area.

Volunteers answer the phone, interview clients briefly, fill out forms, and mail applications to clients. A pleasant voice and legible printing are needed.

For further information, call 779-2177, Mon. through Fri., and ask for Lynn or Jo. In the evening, call 577-2912 and ask for Pat.

line at the end of the game. The defense was not really tested, but all played well.

Peggy Yunger and Theresa Alfaro who were hurt during the second half were carried off the field in grand style by Coach Cassidy.

A scrimmage for the second string players was held against the same Hyattsville team Wed.

The next official game will be Sun., Sept. 23, against Bowie at Bowie. All team members are to meet at Braden Field at 4:15 p.m.

Choral Arts Society

The Greenbelt Choral Arts Society will begin its fourth season on Tues., Oct. 4. This year the Society, under the direction of Douglas Freeman, will present a variety of performances that include a family Christmas concert and Poulenc's Christmas Motets, Thompson's Frostiana, Leonard Bernstein's Chichester Psalms, and several other works.

A special feature this year will be the Ars Musica, a specially selected group of eight singers who will perform a wide range of classical and folk songs. The Ars Musica will perform regularly at the Society's concerts.

Auditions will be held on Sun., Sept. 25, from 4 to 7 p.m. Appointments may be scheduled by telephoning 474-4980 on Fri., Sept. 23, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

GREENBELT PARENT DISCUSSION GROUP

The first meeting this year of the Greenbelt Parent Discussion Group will be Wed., Sept. 28, from 9:30-11:30 a.m. The meeting will be held in the Greenbelt Baptist Church. Babysitting will be available and refreshments will be served.

The Greenbelt Parent Discussion Group, one of several sponsored by the public school system, has been in existence for nearly twelve years. Betty Hughes has been the trained discussion leader. The purpose of the group is to expand the knowledge of child development by providing more resources and discussing more effective methods of parenting. Reading is not required; however, a reading list and materials are available. Guest speakers are invited to the group.

At the upcoming meeting, the group will decide on possible topics for the coming year. One suggested topic is "The Advantages and Disadvantages of Having Children." In previous years, the group has discussed such topics as "Toilet Training", "Discipline", "Moral Values", "The Changing Role of Women in Today's Family", and "Things to do during the Summer."

All interested individuals are invited to attend. For more information, call Betty Hughes at 474-8458.

174 GHI HOMES WITHOUT WATER

by Janet James

Said one Greenbelt Homes, Inc. (GHI) member to another, "I didn't get any notice that hot water was to be shut off, did you?"

No, 173 GHI households on Research, Hillside and Ridge Roads served by boiler plant #24 did not get notices when the hot water was cut off on September 6, because GHI did not get a notice either.

At approximately 1 p.m., Tuesday, September 6, a Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission (WSSC) work crew arrived at the #24 boiler plant on Research Road, and surprise, surprise, told the GHI heating men that they were going to turn off the water to the plant so that they could replace the water meter. The water was to remain off for the duration of the repair. There was no chance to get out advance notices to the members this time; all GHI could do was turn off the water heaters to prevent damage. The WSSC crew promptly cut off the water and went to work to remove the old meter.

By 3:30 p.m., the old meter had been removed but the new meter was not yet installed, and it was quitting time for WSSC. The WSSC foreman elected to stop work for the day and restore water to the boiler room by opening a by-pass valve around the meter. WSSC then notified GHI that water had been restored to boiler plant #24 and the work crew went merrily on its way home—the WSSC work crew, that is. The GHI work crew went to work to refire the boilers but, surprise again, the water had not been restored. The WSSC men had unintentionally installed a faulty by-pass valve and it didn't work.

Promises, Promises

Mr. Early, GHI heating foreman, telephoned WSSC about 4 p.m. and, finally, after talking with two or three different people, he was promised that a WSSC crew would be out within an hour, "but," said WSSC, "a GHI man will have to be there to help us."

A GHI man was there, indeed he was. He stayed, and stayed, and stayed, but, more surprises, no WSSC crew came in spite of additional calls and more promises. Finally, at 11 p.m., the GHI man was sent home.

At approximately 8 o'clock the next morning, the whole sequence of events was discussed with Mr. Lee, Director of Maintenance at WSSC. A work crew returned to the meter site, installed the new meter, and water to the boiler plant was restored at approximately 2 p.m., Wednesday, September 7. By this time, water in the entire system was cold, so it took about four hours to bring the water temperature up to 150 degrees, the operating temperature for GHI hot water heaters.

GHI was grateful for one thing—it didn't happen in the middle of the winter when 174 households would have been without heat, too.

Volunteers Needed For P.G. Hospital

Teenagers and adults who would like to get first-hand volunteer experience in a hospital may call the Volunteer Office at Prince Georges General Hospital & Medical Center at 341-2335 to enroll in the Fall Volunteer Program.

Teenagers interested in health careers especially can benefit from the program. A wide range of experience is available. Volunteers can perform a variety of functions in both medical and administrative areas of the hospital. These include: the emergency room, clinic, Family Health Center, laboratory, nuclear medicine, patient floors, and in many other areas of the hospital. Clerical volunteers and volunteers for special projects are also needed. Teenagers must be at least 14 years of age and maintain a C average in school. Uniforms are provided free of charge to all volunteers.

Orientation for new volunteers: Teenagers: 14 years old . . . Saturday, Oct. 1, 9 a.m. Hospital auditorium. 15 years old . . . Saturday, Oct. 8, 1977, 9 a.m., hospital auditorium.

330 Runners Compete In Festival Races

A record number 330 runners competed in the Greenbelt Labor Day Festival races Sunday evening, September 6. The weather was, as has been frequently the case, hot and humid. In spite of this adverse condition the times posted for both races were very good.

Dale Valentine, a Greenbelter, won the Fun-For-Your-Life 3-km race around the lake for the second year in a row. He was followed by another 115 finishers. There were nineteen Greenbelt finishers, many running from the same family. Valentine, aged 31, was followed within three minutes by Greenbelters Richard Kerr, David Granite, Jim Harbaugh, Ron Landis, Dave Peterson, Tony MacQuillan, and Kenny Costa. It was their first event for brothers Alexander, Jr. (9) and David (8) Barnes. Deciding to run at the last minute, the younger Barnes attributed losing to his older brother by exactly two minutes to some pre-race Festival pizza, or was it the pancakes?

The ninth Greenbelters, T. Bergemann, was the oldest finisher beating 65 folks substantially younger. The youngest finisher was Alexander Schaffer, aged 4.

Bob Thurston ran a smooth, even pace, to beat 200 others in the 15-km run. His time of 50:21 was a bit off the blistering record of 47:54 set in 1972 by this year's Boston Marathon champ, Jack Fultz. Bob was about 20 seconds back at the 10-km point, but finished 30 seconds ahead of second place finisher Peter Nye. Third overall, and most likely setting a record for a Greenbelter was Jubie Aulisio. His older brother Leo, was the second Greenbelter, ninth overall in a time of 53:41. The first woman was Marilyn Bevan of Baltimore in 58:47 for an overall finish of 34th. First in the 40-49 age group was the phenomenal Glynn Wood, 8th overall in a time of 53:38. First in the 50 and over age group was Hubert Morgan, only a little more than three minutes behind Wood, and 23rd overall. The Aulisis were followed by 11 fellow Greenbelters: Jim Isenberg (54:28); Ponro Houli (58:26); Tom Morgan (59:37); Larry Wenzel (63:05); and Bill Clarke (63:39).

Seventeen women finished.

Career Guidance Course for Women

New Directions for Women, a career guidance course, will be offered at morning and evening sessions September - November at area libraries. This course, focusing on life planning, provides an opportunity for women to investigate the worlds of work, education, and volunteer service while discovering their own potential and learning to develop it. The history and culture of women will be presented, providing a background for the contemporary woman to understand recent societal changes as they relate to women's roles.

Small group discussions, covering topics such as "Who Am I?" "Where Am I Going?" and "How Do I Get There From Here?" will provide an opportunity for participants to express their thoughts and ideas on women's issues.

The morning program will be held at the Greenbelt library. The orientation session is on Saturday, October 1, at 10 a.m. The five-session course will meet on Saturdays, October 8 - November 5, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The evening program will be held at the New Carrollton library, with orientation on Monday, September 26, at 7 p.m. Sessions will be held on Mondays, October 3 - 31, from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

There is a fee for the course, and participants must pre-register. The program is limited to 40 participants. Child care will be provided. To pre-register, call the Women's Center and Referral Service, 937-5265.

New Directions for Women is co-sponsored by Prince Georges Community College, Prince Georges County Memorial Library System, and area women's groups.

Boys and Girls Club

The election for Board of Directors for Boys and Girls Club is coming up and people are needed to run. If people would like to help the youths in the club, if they are not happy with the way the club is being run or have ideas to see implemented, now is the chance.

Run For Board of Directors

For information call Bill McCarthy - 474-7842, Dick Kronzer - 345-1465 or Jo Ann Rowe 345-6095.

Remember the club cannot work for the youth of Greenbelt without a Board of Directors who are interested in what is best for the youth.

Cub Scout Pack 202

Parents are reminded that September 29 they can sign up their sons for cub scouts. "School Night for Scouting" will be taking place in both public and parochial schools from 7-10 p.m.

Boys who are at least eight years old or in the third grade, and live in the North End area, including Boxwood, Lakewood, Lakeside North, may sign up for Pack 202 at either St. Hugh's or North End Elementary School.

Adults are also needed, especially to help with the Webelos and Wolf dens, and the pack meetings. Anyone interested in the cub scouts program should call Joe Sandford at 345-1840 or come to registration.

Cold Water Pipes, Mortgages Discussed by GHI Director

by Sid Kastner

Only necessary "housekeeping" items were on the agenda of the Sept. 8 regular GHI board meeting. These were roughly divided into financial, maintenance, and member matters. In the first category, the staff's comparison of expenditures for the first half year of 1977, with previous six-month costs, was briefly discussed (and is reported on elsewhere in this issue).

A proposal to allow some members to pay off remaining amounts on their mortgage, with the corporation, was also brought up. In the maintenance category, probably the most important item from the point of view of finances was the staff's finding that some of the cold water piping serving frame homes is in sad shape. Among the member matters were some that were decided to be the responsibility of members themselves, and some that the board acknowledged responsibility for.

The corporation's 24-year mortgage held by the Government National Mortgage Association since 1954 will be paid off at the end of this year. However, the corporation entered into individual mortgage arrangements (at the some low 4% interest rate) after 1954 with member-owners of 308 units, so that the mortgages of these particular units will still be outstanding for varying lengths of time; of these 129 are brick units and 179 are frame, with a total outstanding mortgage amount remaining of $136,025. The manager suggested that members in these homes be notified that on or after December 31, 1977 they have the privilege of paying off their mortgage at any time, and that payments so made be placed in the land reserve fund. This recommendation was adopted on a motion by director James Foster.

Member Problems

Most of the member matters were raised by board members individually, not having originally been included on the agenda. Director Mary Clarke expressed concern about lack of screening she has observed around free-standing (Type 3) sheds, and director Don Volk speaking for the Aesthetics committee agreed that enforcement has been lacking. Chairman Jim Smith suggested that management should take a close look at the situation and bring back some recommendations. Director Norman Weyel also objected to what he considered to be excessive size of an antenna on the roof of a member's home. On the other hand, director Margaret Hogensen relayed the complaint of a member that the present painting contractor's crew is doing a sloppy job - harming freshly painted surfaces with debris from upper areas being prepared for painting. This was acknowledged by manager Roy Breashears to be a problem that he has already had other complaints about.

Breashears was able to report, however, that most of the major maintenance work contracted for in 1977 has been completed, including such things as radiator conversions in the boiler plants. Director Virginia Moryadas took the opportunity to offer a motion complimenting those staff members responsible for carrying out all phases of the extensive heating conversion.

Pipes

Looking ahead to a likely future problem in the maintenance area, the solution of which may be expensive, Breashears displayed a section of original two-inch diameter galvanized cold water pipe just taken out of the ground which was badly corroded inside and out. Such pipe presently in the ground under some frame homes will inevitably have to be replaced with rustproof copper pipe.

Among other items that came up during the meeting, director Wayne Williams presented a Labor Day Festival award for GHI's prize-winning float to the board, which was formally accepted by directors Volk and Weyel. Also, the manager brought up the coming NAHC (National Association of Housing Cooperatives) meeting in early November, which several board and staff members will be attending to gain information and present some of GHI's ideas.
